State Income Tax Reduction Bill Becomes Law

Personal Exemption for Single Persons Is Now $2,500 and for Married Persons Is $4,000—Exemption Apply to 1928 Income—Governor (Calls Bill "Uncle Sam's")

Albany, April 6 (AP).—Single persons receiving less than $2,500 personal income, and married persons receiving less than $4,000 personal income in the year will be exempt from the income tax under the provisions of the new law which Governor Roosevelt signed last night.

The new law is effective as of January 1, 1928. The limit of exemption for persons whose personal income came under the first two brackets previously was $1,500 and $2,500, respectively.

With the tax forms already mailed by the State Department of Taxation and Finance when the Governor approved the measure, the exemption for this year was expected to assume the form of a rebate in many instances.

Though the Governor considered the measure "uncle Sam's," he approved it, he said, because he favored reduction in some form and because the surplus greater than previous estimated would exist in the state treasury, allowing for the loss in revenue expected to range between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000.

Condemns Bill, But Signs It.—The Governor's approval was accompanied by a memorandum which said:

"I am signing the so-called personal income tax reduction bill, in spite of the fact that I agree with the members of the tax commission that the bill is unscientific."

"First, it narrows the tax base and tends the exemption principle, and the members of the tax commission hold that it is fundamental in taxation that the tax base should be broad and that any ideal tax law should not contain exemptions. Secondly, the bill places the amount of exemptions by the state of New York on a different basis from the exemptions in the federal income tax law, whereas today the state and federal laws are uniform in this respect."

"Third, I agree with the members of the tax commission that the better method of helping citizens with small incomes is to give either a lower rate on earned incomes or an exemption of a greater amount on earned incomes."

Bill Creates Permanent Reduction.—"Finally, the bill creates a permanent instead of a temporary reduction for this year only."

"The whole measure was rushed through the legislature at the last minute without adequate thought as to its bearing on the finances of the state."

"In spite of all of these objections, which are without question sound in principle, I have after careful thought decided to give my approval to the bill, because the latest information shows that the surplus in the state treasury on June 30 will be sufficient to pay the cost of the income tax reduction. Furthermore, I have constantly gone on record in favor of keeping taxes down, and I am signing the bill, first, with the hope that the next legislature will make more scientific changes in the income tax law, and second, that it will not be necessary to restore the old tax next year for purely financial reasons."

The income tax bill was introduced by the Republicans as a party bill in the last days of the legislative session.

FOLLOWING UP CLEW TO SOUTHERN CROSS FLIERS
Perth, N. S. W., April 6 (AP).—Captain Charles Kingsford-Smith and his three companions of the plane Southern Cross were believed today to be down east of Thurburn Bluff, western Australia. A government launch was sent to hunt for them.

The information was conveyed in a telegram this morning to Philip Collier, premier of Western Australia, from Colonel Mansbridge, resident magistrate at Broome, far west Australian coast.

Thurburn Point or Bluff, is a promontory on the Timor Sea, just north of the entrance to the Cambridge Gulf, western Australia. It is located about 70 miles north and west of Fremantle, the goal of the four fliers when they set out last Saturday, just a week ago.

HIGHLAND BOY MISSING.
FEARED CHASTISEMENT.
Highland, April 6 (AP).—Walter, Jr., 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fischer, has been missing from his home here since Wednesday. It is believed that the boy disappeared because he feared chastisement for damaging his father's automobile. He is described as being five feet, seven inches in height, weight 140 pounds, and has light hair and blue eyes. He was dressed in a blue jacket and black shoes.

Patrick Henderson Discharged.
Patrick Henderson, who was arrested at Poughkeepsie earlier in the week on a warrant sworn out by his wife, who charged him with non-support, was discharged in police court today when Mrs. Henderson withdrew the charge.

Hoover Favors Tax Reduction on Earned Income

President Believes Such a Tax Measure Tendency to Place a Penalty on Thrift—Will Be at Least Six Months Before Subject Can Be Discussed

Washington, April 6 (AP).—The many men and women who earn their incomes and keep an annual engagement with the collector of internal revenue may draw some satisfaction from assurances that the administration hopes to lighten their tax burden.

When the time is propitious for a reduction in Federal income taxes, they stand first on President Hoover's list of those to be benefited and the chief executive's views have the expressed support of Secretary Mellon and numerous leaders in the House and Senate.

But in the President's opinion, and again his ideas coincide with those of the treasury head, it will be at least six months before the subject can be discussed with a view to positive action. After that there will still be plenty of time before the regular session of Congress in December.

Tax reduction, as Mr. Hoover sees it, must necessarily be governed by the sum total of Federal expenditures in their relationship to the condition of business throughout the country. Just at present no one high in the administration professes to see very far into the future with respect to either.

In the President's opinion, too fine a distinction is drawn between what are classed as "earned" incomes and those that go on the government books as "unearned."

Technically it is the difference between incomes derived principally from salaries and wages and those which flow from investments or accrue from ownership. Again, and in figures, "earned" income is an income of less than $5,000, regardless of its source, or an income of not more than $20,000 which is received as remuneration for personal effort.

In the amount of tax paid, the citizen whose income is of the "earned" variety pays twenty-five per cent less than his neighbor, whose income falls into the other classification.

From President Hoover's point of view, as matters now stand, the tax on "earned" incomes has a tendency to place a penalty on thrift. He bases this opinion on a belief that savings—provision for the future—must be made from the "earned" incomes, while "unearned" personal revenue usually needs to be put to no such use.

Kill 400 Chinese Troops in Battle

Chafoo, Shantung, China, April 6 (AP).—Troops of Liu Chen-Nien, nationalist commander in this province, today killed 400 soldiers of Marshal Chang Tsung Chang, former war lord, in a battle at Ninghaichow, which Chang is besieging.

Liu professed to Chang through intermediaries that a large number of civilians within the walled city wished to escape; by arrangement with Chang the gates were opened and the civilians came out this morning.

They were accompanied, however, by a large number of soldiers without uniforms. The Nationalists fell on Chang's troops, completely surprising them.

Nationalists Occupy Hankow
Hankow, China, April 6 (AP).—President Chiang Kai-Shek, leading the Nationalist Chinese army, disembarked from a Yangtze river boat today and with his troops formally occupied Hankow. He began negotiations at once with leaders of the Wuhan opposition looking to bloodless surrender of Hankow, Wuchang and Hanyang to the Nationalist government.

The excitement of the past few days has died down and affairs were almost normal. Continued retreat to the west and the partial dispersal of the Wuhan troops was reported.

$25 Verdict in Dog Bite Case

Abraham Goldfarb was given a verdict for $25 in his action against James Cave for dog bite. The plaintiff claimed he had been attacked by two dogs owned by Mr. Cave and bitten several times as well as having his clothing torn. He claimed that through the injuries he was unable to work for two weeks. It was shown by testimony that the dog on a prior occasion had bitten a young lad who resided in the neighborhood. M. O. Auchmoody appeared for the plaintiff and Roscoe V. Elsworth for Brimmer & Elsworth for the defendant. The action was tried in county court.

Beginning Tuesday criminal work will be taken up for trial. Monday afternoon when court convenes at 2 o'clock it is expected that one short civil case will be tried.

MEGEMEN GET $21,000 IN ILLINOIS POSTOFFICE

Peoria, Ill., April 6 (AP).—The post office at Macomb, 76 miles southwest of here, was robbed of $21,000 by megemen who opened the safe early today with an oxyacetylene torch. The loot was in cash, stamps and securities.

The men gained entrance through a basement window.

Tornadoes Whip Three States

Most Destructive Strikes—Minnesota, Wrecking Many Homes—Nine Persons Killed and Over 100 Injured in Storm Areas

Minneapolis, April 6 (AP).—Spring storms of tornadoic violence whipped through parts of Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa late yesterday, killing nine persons. Three others were missing early today and were believed dead. More than 100 men, women and children were in hospitals, some of them so severely hurt that they may not live.

The property damage can hardly be estimated accurately, so wide was the storm's path and so incomplete were reports from the several storm centers; but it was certain to run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

In North Minneapolis alone the damage was fixed at $100,000, while the storm's wake in country sections was strewn with wrecked farm buildings.

The most destructive of the storms formed over Minnetonka, a summer resort near Minneapolis. It struck with increasing velocity on the north side of the city, wrecking many homes, damaging communication lines and uprooting trees. It tore its way through two Minnesota counties and three in Wisconsin before it blew itself out.

The storm broke with little warning over Minneapolis, and in a half hour the northern section of the city was strewn with wreckage. From that point the tornado worked north-east, dipping and rising.

Twenty Homes Wrecked.
Perhaps the most severe blow was struck at Rice Lake and vicinity, where more than 20 farm homes were wrecked. There the wind was accompanied by heavy rain and huge hail stones, which smashed windows.

The number of persons injured here can only be estimated. More than seventy were treated at hospitals, and scores of others at their homes. At Rice Lake, Wis., twenty were so seriously hurt they were placed in the hospital there and sixteen were being cared for at a hospital at Barron, Wis.

Hastings and Beatrice were among the Nebraska cities reporting damage from high winds. At Omaha there was a 22 degree drop in temperature in eight hours from the record breaking 90's into which the mercury had risen. Snowfall was predicted for parts of that state today.

Medal for Negro Who Saw Flag Planted at North Pole

New York, April 6 (AP).—Matthew A. Henson, who, as Commander Peary's negro aide, saw the Stars and Stripes planted at the North Pole 20 years ago today, will receive his first formal recognition for his part in the exploit tonight.

The Bronx Chamber of Commerce has had a silver cup inscribed with a tribute to Henson's service which will be presented to him.

Henson, who never received a congressional award for his part in the dash to the Pole, is a clerk in the custom house. He lives with his wife in the Bronx, where many of his neighbors are unaware that he and four Eskimos were the only companions of Peary at the Pole.

He said two of the Eskimos died on the trip and he heard later of the death of the other two. The death of Commander Peary left Henson the only surviving member of the party. He is 62 years old.

Those who have seen the remarkably fine moving picture, "Red Skin," now being shown at the Broadway Theatre, can readily understand the enthusiasm with which Mrs. Reader, president of the New York State Federation of Women's Clubs, has recommended this picture to all club women and their families. It is a picture not only well worth seeing, but full of thrills that have nothing silly about them. It can be seen again this evening at the Broadway Theatre.

Linsfield, England, April 6 (AP).—Square Rock, by Rock Flat, out of Quartette, today won the Linsfield handicap of a mile over a field including the famous American colt, Red Fox. Caballero was second and Yoko third. None of the first three horses were among the favorites.

Electrical Storms Hit Upstate Area With Intense Fury

Syracuse and Central New York Damaged by Brief Storms—Four Men and Two Women Injured—Train Derailed, Street Cars Mashed, Cereals Overflowed Their Tanks

Syracuse, April 6 (AP).—Four men and two women were injured, a special train was derailed, street cars were halted and thousands of dollars damage was caused by electrical storms which struck Syracuse and Central New York last night and early today.

Reports from cities and towns throughout the area showed the storm had struck with brief but intense fury, leaving in its wake swollen rivers and creeks and inundated railroad beds.

At Oneida, Oneida and Cowsasset creeks overflowed their banks and both the east and west ends of the city were inundated. In outlying sections hundreds of acres of farm lands were under water.

The worst damage in Oneida was caused at the east end of the city, where the section around Wilson, Walnut and Devereaux streets was covered and two tracks of the New York, Ontario and Western railroad were inundated.

Reports this morning said the peak of the flood conditions was expected about noon today, indicating further damage to property.

From other sections similar reports were received although of a lesser degree. During an electrical storm in the Ithaca section last night three barns were struck by lightning and burned.

Trolley service from Syracuse to Oswego and Auburn was interrupted and at 10 a. m., had not been resumed.

The women injured were hurt in an automobile accident caused by a washout on the Baldwinsville-Platville road. A police sergeant was injured when an automobile skidded into him. His condition was not regarded as serious.

The city of Syracuse experienced a rainfall of 2.91 inches and several streets were flooded. Both Harbor Brook and Onondaga Creek overflowed.

Award $10,000 for Fall Down Stairs

New Paltz Woman Claimed It Was Caused by Unsafe Outside Stairway Leading to Her Apartment on Second Floor—Owner Claimed Plaintiff Was Careless

Josephine Bollin of New Paltz was awarded $10,000 in her action brought against John A. Pruss to recover damages for a fall which she sustained as she alleges through the negligence of the defendant in maintaining an unsafe entrance to a second story apartment where she resided in the Pruss house. She sued to recover $25,000. The action was tried before Judge Stanley in Supreme court and was sent to the jury Friday afternoon.

Plaintiff rented rooms on the upper floor of the Pruss house. Entrance was by an outside stairway. Mrs. Bollin alleges that one day as she was leaving the house the platform of the steps sagged and she was thrown to the ground and suffered a broken hip and other injuries.

The defendant claimed that it was not through the dangerous condition of the platform but through the carelessness of the plaintiff that she was injured. It was claimed that she had started down the steps and was leaning over the rail picking apples from a tree when the weight of the woman on the rail caused her to fall. Negligence in maintaining the stairway was denied.

Peter H. Hays of New Paltz and John W. Eckert appeared for the plaintiff and A. J. Cook and Frank Murray for the defendant.

Appoint Snyder As Deputy Clerk

Mayor E. J. Dempsey this morning appointed Nelson W. Snyder as deputy city clerk to fill the unexpired term of Charles F. Lieske, who resigned on Friday to accept a position as deputy internal revenue collector. Mr. Snyder assumes his new duties on Monday.

The new deputy city clerk has been serving as city marshal of the city court under Judge Augustus Shufeldt, having succeeded Edgar Holstein who became plumbing inspector of the city.

Go Higher Up, Is Seaman's Aim

Highland Man Will Not Swear Out Warrant, But Will Write to Mrs. Willebrandt and See Governor Roosevelt, He Says

Immediate appeal will be made to Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant United States attorney general in charge of prohibition enforcement, for alleged lack of cooperation on the part of Kingston dry agents in cleaning up a Highland roadhouse selling liquor. John R. Seaman of Highland said last night, according to the Poughkeepsie Eagle News of Friday, Mr. Seaman, who is connected with the Kingston Citizens' League, said he would write to Mrs. Willebrandt today, says the Eagle News.

If no action is obtained from the Washington authorities Mr. Seaman plans to go directly to Governor Roosevelt. "Governor Roosevelt fired up the water situation for us here in Highland and while I hate to go to him again, I will do so if I can get no response from Mrs. Willebrandt," he said.

Mr. Seaman, who says he owns the building where he declares the liquor is stored and sold, has already served the tenant, a woman, with a dispossession notice in connection with which she must appear in the Ulster county court by April 10, according to the owner. The papers were served yesterday, he said.

According to Mr. Seaman, he brought agents from Kingston to "within 300 feet of the property" and pointed out to them a quantity of liquor outside the building. They refused to raid the place because they lacked a warrant, he said. Mr. Seaman has refused to swear out a warrant before Commissioner Connolly in Kingston because he does not think it is necessary. "The place is a regular roadhouse and no warrant is necessary to search it," he said.

"SHOOT IT OUT" WITH RIVAL RUM RUNNERS.

Louisville, Ky., April 6 (AP).—Andy Ormes was given his choice of "taking a ride," Chicago style, or "shooting it out" with rival rum runners in his apartment here last night. He chose to shoot and in a hail of bullets killed C. N. Wilson and scared away two other assailants.

Ormes is in jail charged with murder. Joseph Korotka, said by police to be a member of a New York rum gang, and a woman calling herself Lorene King, are being held as accessories.

According to the story of the battle obtained by police, Wilson, Korotka and a third man who escaped visited the Ormes apartment. Wilson accused Ormes of taking eight cans of alcohol and demanded payment under threat of "taking a ride." Ormes replied "You'll kill me here or no place at all," and the firing followed.

Immediately after the shooting, Ormes called police headquarters and informed of the killing and also that he would be awaiting when officers arrived. A few moments later he handed his pistol to police and was arrested.

MARLBOROUGH MAN HOME, MINUS FEET

On Tuesday the officials of the town of Marlborough were notified that George Deyo, formerly of both Milton and Marlborough was ready to be released from the Kingston Hospital where he recently had both feet removed. Overseer Hugh V. Briscoe of Milton was sent to Kingston to take Mr. Deyo to the County Home at New Paltz. When Deyo learned of his destination, he begged to be taken to Poughkeepsie, instead, where he claimed he had friends and Mr. Briscoe took him where he wished to go says the Marlborough Record.

It will be remembered that George Deyo, who resided part time in Milton and part of the time in Marlborough, was sent to Kingston jail recently, for three months for having become intoxicated several times from canned heat, anti-freeze solutions and whatever other liquor substitute he could lay his hands on.

When he was taken to the jail the physicians who examined him found that both of his feet were badly frozen and he was removed to the hospital where both feet were removed above the ankles.

Mention Pershing For Paris Post

Washington, April 6 (AP).—The possibility that General John J. Pershing may become the next ambassador to France has been injected into the unofficial speculation which always thrives in Washington when an appointment of such importance is pending.

His name has been added mysteriously to the list of distinguished public men already mentioned for the post, which includes such figures as Frank B. Kellogg, until recently secretary of state; Dwight F. Davis, former secretary of war, and Henry P. Fletcher, ambassador at Rome.

The point emphasized in the discussion of General Pershing is that as a world war hero of both America and France, he occupies a position in the affections of the two peoples similar to that of the late ambassador, Myron T. Herrick.

Furthermore, it is reasoned, if former Vice President Dawes should accept the ambassadorship to Great Britain, selection of another important world war figure to go to France would provide the kind of balance for the two appointments which the administration is supposed to desire.

4 Dead, Many Hurt In Iowa Hotel Fire

Group of Men and Women Who Had Been Holding a Party Not Found Since—Four Men Jumped From Top Floor

Des Moines, Iowa, April 6 (AP).—At least four persons are dead and scores are suffering from injuries, burns and cuts received in a fire which broke out at the Kirkwood Hotel shortly after 3 o'clock this morning.

Fire Chief Burnett expressed the belief that several additional bodies might be found. He said a group of men and women had been reported holding a party in one of the rooms, and had not been found since. Firemen were almost unanimous in believing that more victims were buried in the debris.

Twelve persons were taken to hospitals and many others injured and burned were given first aid.

Between 125 and 150 persons were in the building when the fire broke out.

Two policemen, attracted by the screaming of women, and a negro porter, noticed the fire about the same time and turned in alarms. All fire companies in the city responded.

Four men jumped from the fifth (top) floor to the top of the court which served as the roof of the first floor. Three of them are believed to be dead. Police and hotel employees were busy this morning checking up the guests to see if any remained in the burning building.

The building, which is a total loss, was valued at between $200,000 and $250,000. It was constructed before the Civil War.

Explosion Wrecks Passenger Coach

Temple, Texas, April 6 (AP).—A passenger coach of a south bound Santa Fe train was wrecked about 15 miles north of here early today by a mysterious explosion. None of the 15 passengers in the car was seriously injured.

Officers, after questioning passengers, advanced the theory the explosion was caused by a bomb but were at loss as to explain the presence of explosives on the train.

All windows and one end of the coach were blown out. Other coaches of the train were not damaged.

ELEANOR GUNN ON FASHIONSAND WHITE WITH MAGNET COMBINATIONS
FOR SPRING

New York—At a very recent fashion show preceded by a talk by a famous stylist on current fashion, the palm was given to black and white as the most desirable of all combinations for spring. A strong preference for navy and white was expressed on this occasion. In many ways it seems the most desirable of first place since black and white comes and goes. Its appearance is a harbinger of spring, for usually enough navy seems never to go and great vogue excepting at a season.

That such a shift has been reclaimed is more astonishing than that which are voted smart, or that still more and fashions are again being worn by the younger element. We have just naturally come in these old-time fabrics, but there certainly nothing old-fashioned out their modern applications. Black is also prime favorite in silks and woolsens to say nothing of gingham which have not had such vogue since the war. Not only gingham but other cottons show signs of being active in summer sports clothes, more especially short little sleeveless models. Figure in white and color is reckoned smart and has the sponsorship of Cannes and other foreign resorts as well as Palm Beach and Miami to give it impetus. Cottons and linens are by no means confined to dresses. The ensemble is still even though it be cotton, and since jackets remain fixed fashion, naturally jacket dresses appear in all sorts of materials from wool to lace and from lace to gingham.

A Smart Little Frock. 6426. On this party frock the girl may have a Louche, which forms a graceful curve on the front. A ribbon bow in a favorite color forms an attractive touch at the neck. Printed tulle is chosen in this instance. One could have crepe de chine, or tulle; with pipings in self or contrasting color.

The pattern for this dainty frock cut in 5 sizes: 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 are. To make a 3 year size will require 2 yards of material 32 inches wide. The bow of ribbon requires 1/2 yard.

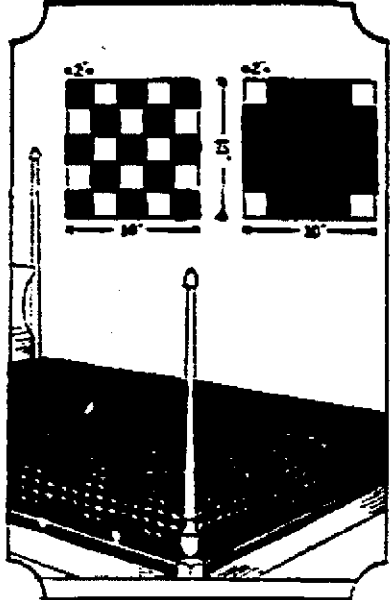

A pattern of this illustration cut to any address on receipt of 1c in coin or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Kingston, N. Y. Be sure to state the size.

Used Flour Bags Make
This Patchwork Quilt

This charming old blue-and-white patchwork quilt, made about a century ago, was part of the marriage equipment of a New England bride. Handed down generation after generation, it is still in a good state of preservation and is admired by every woman who sees it. A few years ago Mrs. Herbert Hoover saw it and so taken with its beauty that she had it duplicated as a wedding present to her son.

The actual handwork on this quilt is extremely simple. Its effectiveness lies in the care with which the stitches are set, so as to get nice, square corners. It is quite in keeping with the thrifty spirit of our forefathers, or in this case should say, foremothers!—that this quilt should be made at little or no expense from used flour bags. Nine or ten bags will be needed for making a full-sized quilt. If you do not have these on hand from flour bought for home baking, your baker will doubtless let you have some for a few cents apiece.

The first step is to rip the bags and remove the stamping by soaking it in kerosene or covering it with lard overnight and then washing the goods in warm water. Then dye six of the pieces of material a deep shade of blue, what is commonly known as a pale blue.

The basis of the quilt is alternating blocks, shown in the illustration. One block is a checkerboard square composed of alternating two-inch squares of the blue-and-white materials. The other is of solid blue with a two-inch square of the white in each corner.

For a full-sized spread, forty-two of the checkerboard blocks will be needed and thirty of the blue ones. When all the blocks are completed, sew them together in strips diagonally, filling in at the ends to make a straight edge, taking care to follow out the pattern squares.

Finish the quilt with three two-inch strips of blue, white and blue, with a nine-square checkerboard block at each corner.

Skim Milk Solids Are Among Important Foods

Very few Americans eat correctly. Most American diets are deficient in the animal proteins and minerals found so abundantly in milk.

These are among the findings of Dr. George Walker, Baltimore scientist who has been making a study of the eating habits of the American people. Doctor Walker told the initial results of his study before the American Dietetic association meeting in Baltimore.

Perhaps the most startling fact brought out by Doctor Walker's study is the pronounced shortage in a large proportion of the diets of iron, lime and phosphorus. Lack of phosphorus leads to rickets. He found that 54 per cent of all the diets were below normal in the proportion of calcium and 62 per cent were lacking in the phosphorus element essential to the growth of nerves and bones. These elements are obtained chiefly in milk and in certain of the vegetables. Every child should drink not less than a quart of milk daily, and every adult not less than a pint, according to Doctor Walker.

Doctor Walker's findings follow on the heels of other recent findings by nutrition experts of the great value of milk proteins, milk sugar and milk minerals in the human diet. These investigators have proved that it is not the butterfat above the cream line in the milk bottle but the solids in the skim milk below that are really the body builders. Homemakers who would conserve the health of the members of their families will, therefore, encourage not only the free drinking of milk but also the eating of bakery goods, ice cream, candies, meat specialties and many other of the food articles that are now made with skim milk solids.

Choosing Color Scheme
to Hold Hat Cost Down

Inasmuch as real dyed-in-the-wool perfection in dress today is represented by a hat selected to accompany but one dress, and one only, most of us will no doubt have to decide in favor of fewer dresses or abandon ourselves to an indulgence in the purchase of more hats.

It is a nice idea, but women have a way of cleverly getting around such corners by so carefully choosing delicate color schemes that one hat—very impressively smart—does the work of two or more.

Twins Are Plentiful
Medical literature records some remarkable cases of multiple birth, and makes twins seem commonplace. There is one instance of seven living children born together of which only one did not survive. Five cases are known of six children born at once. The average of twins born at once is about 1 in 100; triplets about 1 in 6,000; and 4 births at a time about 1 in 10,000,000. It is rare for all four of quadruplets to survive.

Taxiing Around The Airports

Location of the new Las Vegas, Nev., airport has been determined. The new port, which will be complete in every detail to be closer to the city. It will supersede the airport used for many years by the Western Air Express operating between Los Angeles and Salt Lake City. The lease for the old airport has expired.

The department of commerce plans the establishment of two additional airports on the Boston-New York airways and is considering construction of one more intermediate landing field along the route. The Colonial Air Transport, operating along this airway, requested the installations.

Galveston, Texas, has obtained 150 acres of land east of the city which will be developed into a municipal airport. Construction work will be started soon so that the field may be used late in the spring. Complete facilities are to be installed during the summer. At present, the army airport at Fort Crockett is available for transient planes.

The Alexandria, La., Aero Club is making plans for an "airport day" in an effort to arouse interest in the municipal airport to effect the installation of needed facilities. Army planes from Fort Crockett at Galveston, Texas, are to put on an air show for the occasion.

The power company at Bay City, Mich., plans to light its high tension transmission line near the municipal airport to aid aviators flying at night. Flashing red lights will be placed at the apex of each tower.

The fairgrounds site has been selected for establishment of the Hlawatha, Kas., municipal airport. Many of the buildings have been torn down and the area to be used for landing is to be reconditioned.

STOVE HEAT BLISTERS PRECIOUS VIENNA ART

Vienna, April 6 (AP).—More than a million dollars worth of masterpieces of art of the Dutch and Italian schools hanging in the Austrian National Museum were badly blistered as a result of the recent long-continued cold-wave.

Stoves were placed in the museum to counter the intense cold and prevent cracks in the paintings. They did their job too well, raising expensive blisters on many famous paintings.

Among hundreds of paintings which suffered are Titian's "Madonna of the Cypresses," Rubens' "Assumption of the Virgin," Raphael's "Madonna in Green," Durer's "Emperor Maximilian," and a number of the canvases of Peter Brueghel.

Doctor Ernest Bushbeck, custodian of the museum, believes that none of the pictures are irretrievably damaged and that all may be restored by skillful hands.

Sealing Down the Overhead
It used to be said that whenever a Scotsman got to London he never went back home—except to fetch his brother. That notion is out of date, according to Lord Dewar, who remarked recently, "There are not nearly so many Scotsmen traveling down to London as there used to be. They get born in London nowadays to save the fare."

GAS BUGGIES—The Arrival

Judge, 85, Takes His Fourth Bride

North Brookfield, Mass., April 6 (AP).—Associate Justice Emerson L. Barnes, 85, gave his friends another surprise Thursday when he returned to his home with his fourth bride, Mrs. Christie A. (White) Barnes, 50, of Syracuse, N. Y. Justice Barnes said last night they were married Wednesday in Syracuse by the Rev. M. A. Banning, pastor of the Delaware Baptist Church. Following the ceremony, the couple started immediately for North Brookfield to make their home. Their engagement was announced in January.

BERLIN MEN BUYING READY MADE CLOTHING

Berlin, April 6 (AP).—The first German attempt at American standardization in men's clothing caused a 20 per cent reduction in retail prices here.

A chain of stores under a central management uses "American style" quality production and sells ready-made suits at rates substantially lower than those of any of the Berlin tailors. The standardized suits are finding a ready market.

MUSTAFA KEMAL HUSHES TURKEY REFORM RHAPSODY

By PRISCILLA KING (Associated Press Correspondent)

Angora, Turkey, April 6 (AP).—Mustapha Kemal, heading the discord that broke up the program of Amanullah of Afghanistan, has put the soft pedal on Turkey's hitherto riotous rhapsody of reform. The lull probably will be only temporary, although it may be prolonged.

One of the most recent planistic effects came in the mosques. Before Amanullah was dethroned in Afghanistan, the Ghazi ordered that the sacred writings which hang in the Muslim places of worship, and bear in the old Arabic script the names of the Prophet and the Caliphs with verses from the Koran, should be replaced by inscriptions in the new Latin alphabet.

There was murmuring among the die-hard orthodox but the order was to be executed when, close on the heels of Amanullah's downfall, the decree was rescinded. So the old alphabet of the Koran, taboo everywhere else in Turkey, still holds good in the Mosques.

But reforms are still hatching in the restless brain of the president of the Turkish republic. Once the nation has had time to swallow and digest the revolutionary changes that have been crowded into its mouth, his powerful determination prescribe the hardest dose of all—the reform of fundamentals in the national religion.

This reform will go so far as to delete from the Moslem faith such tenets as those of blind submission to a blind Fate, of contentment with little or nothing, and of patience carried to the point of stagnation. It will go even farther in introducing those principles of Christianity which are believed to have been instrumental in developing the vitality and driving-power of the occident.

Just how this tremendous tampering with an ancient creed is to be effected, and this giant's dream of stirring the sluggish faculties of a whole people into new life through a new faith is to be realized, are things un-revealed. But the important known point is that the Ghazi's masterful mind is working the problem out.

The entire faculty of the Stamboul Divinity School has been called for sudden consultation to Angora, which means that portentous things are under way.

A definite but premature revelation of the impending upheaval of ancient Moslem ritual and belief, was made last summer when the Constantinople press got hold of the report which a commission of the divinity professors of Stamboul had just completed for Kemal's consideration. There was hasty denial of the validity of the published report but inner circles are confident it will serve as a basis for Kemal's next great undertaking.

The report advised two lines of action: the giving of a new direction to Moslem belief as described above, and the Christianizing, even frankly the Christianizing, of traditional Moslem ritual. This will mean the introduction of pews and instrumental music in the mosques, the scrap-plag of prayer rugs, and the training of worshippers to keep on their shoes and take off their hats.

These reforms have not yet been executed due to Turkey's present policy of watching storm-tossed Afghanistan, but rug-merchants are so sure that they will be put into effect later that they have already begun to curtail the production of prayer rugs.

NEW ZEALAND YIELDS AMBERGRIS FORTUNES

Sydney, Australia, April 6 (AP).—Two lucky finds of ambergris, worth more than its weight in gold, were made by different parties the same day near Kaipara Heads, in the north island of New Zealand. One unusually large lump was declared to be worth approximately $40,000.

Ambergris, or "grey amber" is a solid, fatty inflammable substance of a dull, grey or blackish colour, that is really the bile from a sperm whale. Usually it is found floating on the sea, or in the sand near the sea coast in tropical latitudes. Not often is it found so far south as New Zealand waters.

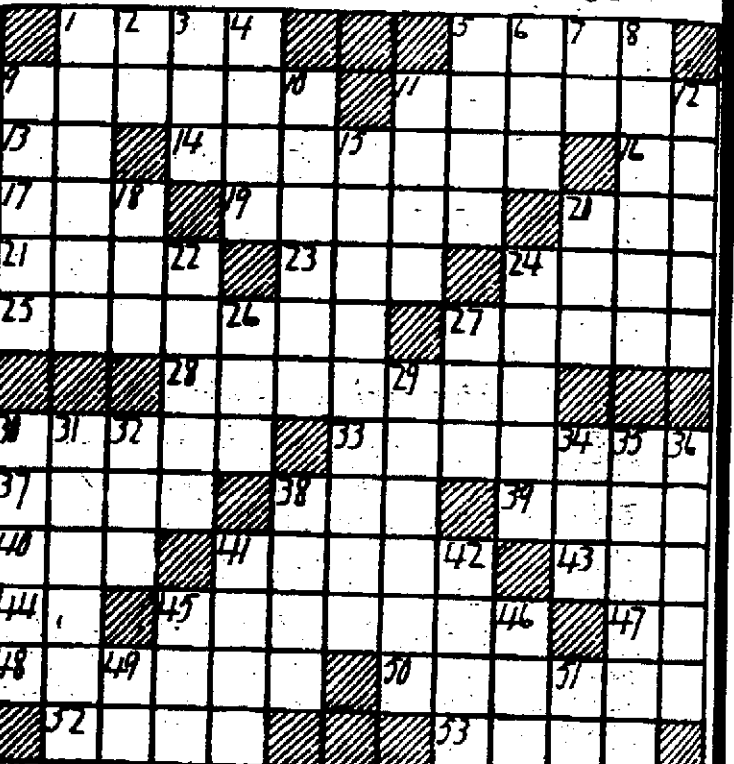

Ambergris is now used only in perfumery, though it formerly was freely used in medicine. In minute quantities its alcoholic solution is much used for giving a "floral" fragrance to bouquets, washes and other preparations of the perfumer.

The hunting dog is the most popular type in one of England's greatest annual exhibitions, the Crufts show.

News from the World on Wheels

Official figures for the production of American automobile companies for March total 555,000, which is 24% above the previous high month on record. The figure includes the entire industry, both U. S. and Canadian plants, and assemblies of American units abroad. It is estimated from shipping statements reported to the directors' meeting of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, held in New York today.

Announcement by the Packard Motor Car Company of New York of its greatest month's business came with the completion of its twenty-sixth year of continuous activity when Lee J. Eastman, president and general manager, reported the record delivery to purchasers in the New York territory of 1,295 new Packard Eights during March. This record represents a twenty per cent increase over the best figure heretofore attained by Packard in New York.

Shipments of Franklin cars in the first quarter of the current year set a new high record over any previous quarter and a gain of 131 per cent over the first quarter of last year.
These record shipments also exceed the total shipments in the first six months of 1928, the Franklin Automobile Company announced today.
March shipments also set a new high record over any previous month in history and gained 140 per cent over the same month of last year.

Sales of the Champion Spark Plug
Company for the first quarter ending March 31 show an increase of 37% over the same period for 1928 which was the previous high mark in the company's history. The steady growth of business has made necessary several plant extensions.

Factory shipments in March of 15,384 new Nash "400" Series cars brought an increase in Nash manufacturing and sales records 44 per cent over the month a year ago, according to announcement made today by sales department officials of the Nash Motors Company. Following as it does a gain of 77 per cent in January shipments and 33 per cent in February, the March showing swells
the increased business done by Nash so far in 1929 over the similar period last year to an average gain of 48 per cent for the entire three months.

Graham-Paige, with its new line of 1929 models, continues to surpass production records, to meet the demand for the improved cars on five different chassis. March production of 9,610 cars brought the total for the first quarter of 1929 to 25,284, nearly double the figures for the same period last year, when 13,125 cars were built.

Pierce-Arrow's rise to prominence in the fine car field rolled up sales and production records in the first three months of 1929 that far exceed those of the same period of any preceding year in the company's history. Predictions of a tripled 1928 volume are virtually assured of fulfillment.

The Vikings are coming. The vanguard of Vikings, the new V-shape eight cylinder automobile being introduced by Oldsmobile and General Motors, will be on initial public display in the larger cities of the country this week and additional shipments are leaving the factories daily to supply the entire Oldsmobile dealer organization with the new companion car to Oldsmobile Six. This method of meeting the motoring public, first in the massed centers of population and then spreading throughout the entire country, is typical of the tactics of the successful conquests waged by those early courageous pioneers from whom the new car has taken its name—the Vikings.

GUN MEN TACTICS IN IRISH COURTS STIR GOVERNMENT

Dublin, April 6 (AP).—The government has announced its determination to suppress by new legislative measures certain fresh activities of gun men, which have interfered with the operation of courts of justice in the Irish Free State.

Recently there have been some incidents which pointed to the existence of a secret society formed to intimidate jurors and witnesses in criminal cases.

In one trial warnings were issued to jurors, and one member of the panel sustained a gunshot wound.
In another case with a presumed political complexion, a witness was shot dead. In an effort to crush what authorities regarded as a conspiracy to defeat justice, the government arrested 70 persons after these acts of violence, but all of these suspects were subsequently released.

Efforts of the government to enact drastic laws to check this alleged situation will probably be opposed by the parliamentary opposition on the grounds that present laws, if enforced, are sufficient to deal with the trouble.

Only a few months ago a drastic law, inspired by the murder of Kevin O'Higgins, vice president of the Free State council, was repealed.
This statute gave the executive powers of arrest without trial or charge and retention in jail of such suspected persons for two months; it provided severe penalties on conviction, including death for attempts to subvert justice, which were classed as treason. The law was never applied, but its presence on the statute books acted as a wholesome warning to disturbers.

Camilla Horn

From the dance hall to a movie star has been the record of handsome Camilla Horn, a native of Germany. Miss Horn served a very short apprenticeship as "extra" for within three days she was given regular work, being given an important part in "Faust." She was soon induced to come to America, and her first appearance was in "Tempest," as leading lady to John Barrymore. She has light hair and dark eyes, and a winsome personality. Her latest picture is "King of the Mountains."

THE WHY of SUPERSTITIONS

By H. IRVING KING

SPITTING ON BAIT

THAT spitting on fish-bait will cause the fish to bite is so widespread a belief, and the custom is so common, that the practitioners of this mystic rite perform the act as a matter of course and never imagine that they are perpetrating an old heathen custom, come down to them from the earliest ages.

The practice is merely a phase of the age-long superstition with regard to the efficacy of saliva for good—as a warder off of evil influences and a bringer of luck—a superstition which was old in the days of the Greeks and the Romans and of which Theophrastus sang in one of his Idyls. In fact the superstition appears to have existed among all peoples in all ages, and to have persisted uninterruptedly from beyond the dawn of history down to the present day. A thousand years and more ago Pliny, the great Roman naturalist, spoke very highly of the practice of "spitting for luck."

The superstition is undoubtedly an emanation from the mind of primitive man who, as he saw in the violent expulsion of the breath in sneezing a forcible manifestation of man's spirit, saw, also in the expulsion of saliva sending forth of some inherent quality in the man himself to do the man's bidding. The savage threw a dart at his visible foe—the spirit at his invisible ones.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

"BY JINGO!"

"BY JINGO" dates back several hundred years, being a contribution made to our language by Basque mountaineers who in the Thirteenth century were brought over to England by Edward the First to aid him in the subjugation of Wales.

The Basque provinces lie along northern Spain and southern France and their speech is said to be the sole survival of the ancient Iberian tongue.

In the language of these hillmen "jingo," from which we have "by jingo," expressed the supreme deity.

Appropriated originally by the English soldiery the corruption took hold in popular speech and the phrase "by jingo" has survived to this day.

You Can't Beat 'Em!

An American, an Irishman and a Scotchman died together at a fashionable hotel. Upon finding the door the American pulled up a stool and lit his cigarette. Not to be outdone, the Irishman took out a $10 bill, which he rolled and used for lighting his pipe. And the Scotchman, nothing daunted, drew a cork from his pocket, made out a check for $10,000, and used it for lighting his cigar.

Senate Pages

The page boys in the senate are paid $5.00 per day while the senate is in session. Their hours are commensurate with those of the senate, but it is necessary for them to report somewhat earlier than the hour at which the senate convenes. Their duties are those of messengers generally. Under the laws of the United States they are required to attend school for 15 hours each week. Some attend night school and other attend classes conducted by an instructor at the school in the morning.

MEXICO AGAIN SCENE OF WAR

States of Sonora, Coahuila, Nueva Leon, Vera Cruz Center of Revolt.

Washington.—Many of the 28 states of Mexico have been mentioned in stories of the recent revolutionary outbreak, but hardly all news stories were in the prominence of four: Sonora, Coahuila, Nueva Leon and Vera Cruz. A bulletin from the Washington headquarters of the National Geographic society gives the geographic and economic background of these four states and of three key cities, Monterrey, Vera Cruz and Tampico.

"Sonora, in northwestern Mexico, which is the fountainhead of the new revolution, has points in common with our own Southwest," says the bulletin. "To many Mexicans in other states, the Sonorans are the 'Yankees of Mexico.' This is because of their alertness and activity and because contacts with Americans have shaped many of the Sonoran customs."

Sonora Progressive. "Nearly every well-to-do family among the merchants and ranchers has sent its sons and daughters to schools in the United States, and it is not difficult to find natives who speak English fluently. There has been a stream of American goods into the state, and in Sonoran homes one is constantly seeing American phonographs, sewing machines, baby carriages and brass beds."

"The state is primarily a mining and cattle country. Rich silver, gold and copper mines have been operated since the coming of the Spaniards; and there are treasures, some of the rarer minerals, never yet worked commercially. In the southern end of the state lies the valley of the Yaqui river, home of the Yaqui Indians. All Mexican governments have found these Indians an unruly lot, and sanguinary wars have been fought with them."

"Sonora has several gateway towns along the Mexican border. At Nogales an important railway enters Mexico from the United States, striking south to the Gulf of California and thence along the Mexican west coast for 500 miles or more. Turning inland, it reaches Mexico City."

"Adjoining Sonora on the east lies Chihuahua, Mexico's biggest state, which, according to the early reports, remained faithful to the federal cause. Immediately east of Chihuahua is Coahuila, another center of revolutionary activity. Coahuila is a semi-arid region crossed by mountains and with some desert patches; but with considerable areas on which wheat can be grown and cattle pastured. It was to this state that Texas was linked when, a century ago, that huge commonwealth was a part of Mexico. Saltillo, in the southern part of Coahuila, was a common capital, and to this remote town, across deserts and barren mountains, the early American colonists of Texas had to go to present their petitions."

Railway "Nerve Center."

"Monterrey, capital of Nueva Leon, lies about 130 miles south of Laredo, Texas, and 500 miles north of Mexico City. It has a population of more than 100,000, and is one of the most progressive and modern cities in Mexico. Its chief importance from a military point of view lies in the fact that it is the railway 'nerve center' of the republic. Through Monterrey passes the main railway line between Mexico City and the eastern United States, crossing the United States-Mexican border at Laredo, Texas. Two other railways from the border converge at Monterrey: one from Eagle Pass, Texas, and one from Brownsville, Texas, near the mouth of the Rio Grande."

"The spokes of the city's wheel of railways also include a line extending due west to Torreon and the Mexican lake district, the main line south to San Luis Potosi and Mexico City, and a line southeastward to the port of Tampico. Without this rail center, it will be almost impossible for the Mexican government to maintain railway connection with the United States."

"The state of Vera Cruz is a narrow band of territory covering the lower half of the eastern Gulf coast of Mexico. About midway of its coast line is the city of Vera Cruz, which has been the water gateway of Mexico from the days of Cortez. From Vera Cruz a railway extends inland, climbing the mountain bulwark that rims the central plateau on which the City of Mexico lies."

Growing in Importance. "Vera Cruz is for the most part a low-lying country given over to banana, sugar and rice plantations and the growth of other tropical plants. There is no north and south railway throughout the state, only relatively short stretches of track up and down the coast from the port. This situation emphasizes the importance in the affairs of the state, of the city of Vera Cruz, the sea gateway, and the city of Orizaba, 60 miles inland on the road to Mexico City. The holding of these two cities will mean control of the state."

"In recent years the port of Vera Cruz has slipped somewhat from its former dominant position among Mexican ports, while Tampico, 230 miles to the north, has grown rapidly in importance. This advance of Tampico at the expense of Vera Cruz has been due chiefly to two factors: the development of petroleum supplies in the vicinity of Tampico, and later and employment restrictions in Vera Cruz that have discouraged investment and expansion. Since a railway has been in existence from Tampico on to the plateau at San Luis Potosi, an ever increasing stream of goods from overseas has flowed to Mexico City over this route. This geographic and economic situation is of great importance to the federal government at this time. Vera Cruz and Monterrey in the hands of the revolutionists, the San Luis Potosi-Tampico route will give the City of Mexico its only avenue of intercourse with the United States."

Milan and Naples Vie to Be Largest City

Rome.—The two major cities of Italy—Milan in the north and Naples in the south—are making a desperate race for the honor of being the largest city of this country.

By a great apart within the last several years Naples is right on the heels of Milan, with a figure of only 1,361 separating them. Census totals just issued by the government show that Milan, as of January 1, 1928, has 942,114 inhabitants and Naples 940,132. Carrying out Mussolini's program of encouraging rapid growth of Italy's population, Naples took unto herself in just the last year 29,240 new citizens.

For several generations Milan, the big manufacturing and commercial city of Italy, has occupied the unchallenged position of chief city of Victor Emmanuel's nation. But if the growth of Naples, the port city where most Americans who sail to Italy on Italian boats land, continues proportionately the southern city will wrest this position away from her northern rival.

Exposure to Light Hurts Many Medicines

Washington.—Light which is so helpful to sick persons does not do their medicines any good. In fact, so many of these deteriorate upon exposure to light that druggists have authorized a special study to discover containers which will protect their medicines and chemicals from the harmful light. In some cases light rays seem to preserve the medical virtues of a preparation, but in others they are definitely harmful.

The changes which patients notice in the colors of medicines are usually indicative of change in the medical properties. The green color of some from preparations changes to an unpleasant brown. Bright yellow ointments turn brown or green. Tinctures and fluid extracts made from vegetable drugs turn a dark color and deposit sediments. Serums and other biological products lose their ability to cure or prevent disease.

Girl Flees From Never Ending Jazz of Radio

Hot Springs, Ark.—The never ending jazz of dad's radio drove Miss Bernice Reader, twenty-one, member of a prominent Hot Springs family, from her home in search of some place where she could live as she pleased and not "have to listen to that everlasting radio."

Bernice disappeared recently. Her parents sent scores of telegrams to police in Southern cities. They believed her to be an amnesia victim. Memphis police found her hunting for a job in the Tennessee metropolis. She begged to be allowed to remain. Her parents were notified and the girl finally agreed to return home.

"I guess I'll have to go back home and listen to dad's radio all the time and do the same old things," she said. "I didn't have amnesia; I came away without telling them because I didn't want to discuss it."

Once Rich Man, Broke at 84, to Start Again

San Francisco.—"I'm broke now, and maybe it's too late for me to try and recuperate," said Anton Hanson, eighty-four, once wealthy miner, as he entered the city and county hospital here, his feeble body tortured by fever and the effects of pneumonia.

But in the next breath there spoke his hope eternal. "But maybe I can make another pile when I get over this blasted 'flu' business. It's pretty hard, though, to start business at my age without money—just like climbing a wall without a ladder."

His fortune lost four times, Hanson hoped to make a fifth fresh start in life.

Once Poor Himself, Feeds Hungry Men

Boston.—John Carz, well-known restaurant proprietor, is contented again, his annual "debt to America" having been paid when he gave free meals to 2,300 "down-and-outers."

This is the second year that Carz has given a party to the destitute. When he came to this country twelve years ago he was nearly penniless and he feels that he owes a "debt to America" because this country has given him an opportunity to live.

The good Samaritan provided 750 pounds of fresh pork, 85 pounds of fresh ground beef, 600 loaves of bread, plenty of vegetables and more than 200 gallons of coffee, topped off with pie and ice cream.

About the Folks

Donald, the young son of Police-man and Mrs. Charles Murphy of Hasbrouck avenue, was successfully operated on at the Kingston Hospital for tonsils and adenoids by Dr. Fawcett.
Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Simpson and daughter, Edith, and nephew, George Thomas Jr., who spent their Easter vacation with Mrs. Simpson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Simon of 24 Hoffman street, have returned to their home in Utica.
The Opportunity.
After the motor accident the unfortunate victim was carried into a home nearby. A few minutes later a woman dressed in white ran up the steps and rang the bell.
"There he is," he said to the maid who opened the door, "can I see the gentleman who was brought in here a few minutes ago?"
"The child?" replied the girl; "he hasn't come to his senses yet."
"Good!" exclaimed the other. "Thank you very much. I want to see him another day."—Boston Transcript.

Financial and Commercial

New York, April 6 (P).—A wave of week-end liquidation was checked today by the close of today's short session of the stock market by a vigorous upturn in the rails, under the leadership of the Van Sweringen issues. Chesapeake and Ohio was thrust up 7 points to 227, within a fraction of its peak, and Chesapeake Corp., Allegheny Corp., and Erie mounted 3 to more than 4 points.

American Express was again a high flier, shooting up 2 1/2 points to 235. Case Threshing dropped nearly 29 points on a small turnover.
Speculative sentiment was unsettled by the circulation of unfounded rumors that a large operator, who was sponsoring a pool in a motor stock, had met with financial difficulties. While there were no new developments in the credit situation today, many large and small traders were reported to be reducing their long commitments on the theory that a major upswing was unlikely while the market was under the threat of the Federal Reserve Board that unless there was voluntary cooperation on the part of the banks in obtaining a reduction of brokers' borrowings it "may adopt other methods of influencing the situation."

Renewed buying of the oils was based on the theory that despite the failure of oil officials to receive Federal Government approval of their nationwide curtailment program, the restriction policy would be made effective through regional agreements and state legislation.
Pan-American B. Houston and Standard Oil of New Jersey were prominent in the recovery.
In the early movement, Case Threshing broke 20 points, Commercial Solvents 7 1/2, Wright Aeronautical 6, Baldwin 5 1/2, and International Telephone and A. M. Byers five each. Union Carbide, Ad- vance Rumely, Motor Products and Mexican Seaboard dropped 3 to 4 1/2 points, but some of the losses were cut down in the late recovery.
The closing was steady. Sales approximated 1,500,000 shares.

Dodo Easy Victim of Greed and Ignorance

The dodo, often spoken of as a prehistoric bird, is said to have been in existence during the time of Charles I. But it has since been extinct a matter of 200 years, which gives force to the tag, "as extinct as the dodo."
The bird was known only in Mauritius, and soon after the Dutch colonization in 1598 its proverbial fate fell upon it. It was a large fowl, it could not fly, and even at walking or running it was slow and unwieldy. To top these handicaps to its self-preservation, the dodo was, unfortunately, quite good to eat. Its destruction came quickly. Though the colonists might have remembered that you can't eat your dodo and have it, and taken steps to insure its continuance, hungry men are not far-sighted. Moreover, the destruction of the dodo was no doubt hastened by the dogs, cats, and swine which accompanied man in his migrations.

When Memory Falters
How hard it is sometimes to collect things into memory! How difficult it is to get it to work well when years have dulled its use, or rusted its hinges. Old folk said they cannot recall names as they did formerly. They forget things in fashion almost ludicrous, when compared with that of other days. The little cells of memory do not now fly open readily as they once did. Human mechanism is not made to last forever, as it is now. No matter how well it is trained it will no more go on always, than will any other machinery. Even steel will not preserve its elasticity forever. Big bridges have to be replaced at times, generally by piecemeal to save expense. Some conceal it well, some fight against it at peril of life, for that way apoplexy lies.

Oldest Scientific Society
The American Philosophical society is the oldest of America's scientific societies. The society originated in the Junta established in Philadelphia by Benjamin Franklin in 1777. Fifteen of its members were signers of the Declaration of Independence and 18 members helped frame the Constitution. Nine Presidents of the United States, including Washington, Jefferson, Woodrow Wilson and Herbert Hoover, have been elected from the society's membership. Three other Presidents, Cleveland, Roosevelt and Taft, became members after election. All seven Americans who have won the Nobel prize have been members of this organization.

Roman Relics in London
Excavations on an unprecedented scale being made in the city of London for new buildings are leading to remarkable discoveries of Roman and medieval remains.

A pair of antlers found in an excellent state of preservation indicate that the Romans used to have good hunting near the city, and with other objects found, throw a vivid light on the London of 2000 years ago. Among the objects discovered are toilet articles such as the Roman equivalent of the lipstick, various pottery, shoes, and jewelry.

Many Kinds of Insects
In a recent statement in one of the new insect books it is said that more than 75 per cent of all the animal kinds belong to the phylum Arthropoda and more than 9 per cent of these are true insects. The estimated number of living species of insects which have been described is 625,000. This will give our readers some idea of the enormity of the study of entomology. The phylum Arthropoda is, as stated, the largest phylum in the animal kingdom, and aside from the vertebrates, of most importance to man.

Man Marries Grandmother
Marriage of a grandson and his grandmother has just been reported from a village near Swine, in the Province of Overland, Holland. This is how it happened: A man married a girl of twenty, whose mother was fifty-five. By his first marriage this man had had a son and this son married the mother of his father's second wife. Relatives agree that the youth not only married his grandmother, but became acquainted to his own father.

How to Be Well Dressed
So be well dressed, a woman must know the new, and then, with graceful ease, select from that what is best and most suitable for her to wear.—Facts and Fictions.

Just a memory fond and true,

Just a smile of love anew,
Just a tear in silence falling,
And a yearning just for you,
In my heart your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond and true,
There is not a day, dear John,
That I do not think of you.

Americans and Mexicans Clash

After it had been reported that the train was bound for Eagle Pass, Texas it was learned from reliable sources that there was no intention of doing so.

Headquarters Revolutionary Army, Chihuahua City, Mexico, April 5.—Evacuation of Santa Rita, Chihuahua, by the Rebels is under way. Trainloads of modern arms and munitions, including the output of the insurgents, are being sent to Mexico City. It was believed that the Rebels were concentrating here in order to make a stand at the state capital, Cuernavaca, with troops under General Huerto Toranzo.

Religious Insurgents Active.

Mexico City, April 6 (P).—So-called religious insurgents in the state of Jalisco developed unusual activity there today and threatened possible major blows in the face of both principal rebel armies. Historians at Fault in Depicting Lenclos

Two stubborn mistakes are often made concerning a famous French lady, Ninon de Lenclos. First, that she was a woman by nature, second, that she made of love an actual business. Both errors are cruel, both false to the fame this remarkable and glamorous lady won from her admirers, the many gallant, wise, great men who loved her in her youth, adored her to her dying day.
To understand the celebrated Lenclos you must understand her times. Truly to know her you must know her lovers. Her century she personified, fairly glorified. Her lovers she inspired and enriched. One of the most devoted of them has testified to the degree of true leadership she attained and how in the salons she held in the last years of her life she was treated to the honors of a princely court. Count her not incorrigible if, in those same last years, when she was nearing ninety, she had still her lovers. After all, Prince de Leon had crossed uncharted seas to search in vain for a secret of youth that Ninon found at home in Paris.—Mentor Magazine.

The state road in Port Ewen is in a terrible condition. There are large ruts in the road made by the large trucks that go through the place every night. It is hoped the authorities will get busy and build a new state road from Highland to Kingston or many people will be out of homes.
